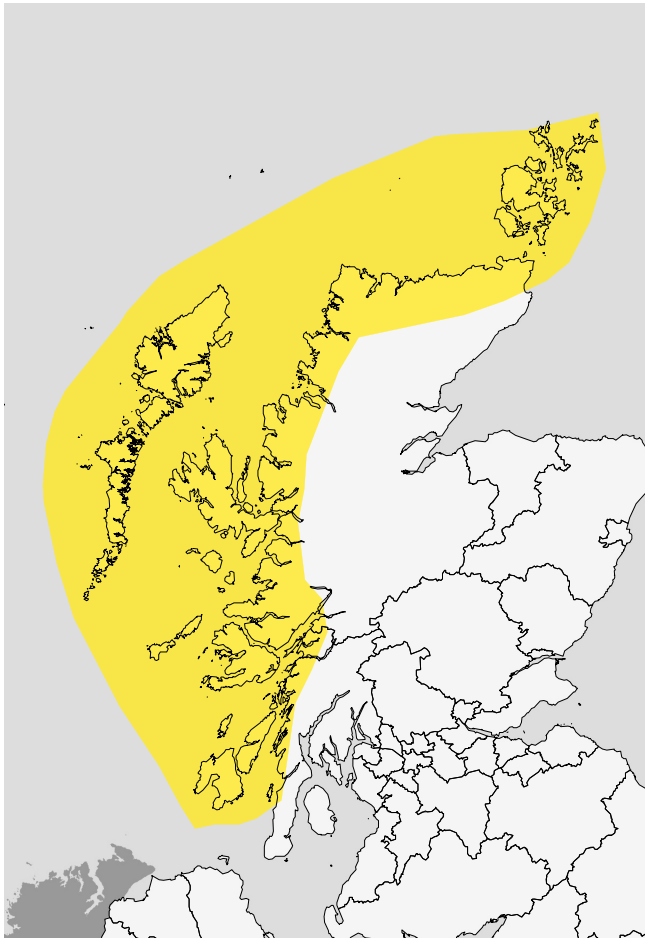
Yellow warning
Wind

Between
18:00 Wed 2 Nov 2022 and
08:00 Thu 3 Nov 2022



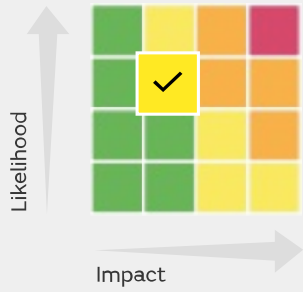
Very strong winds overnight may lead to some transport disruption.

What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

A spell of very strong west to southwesterly winds will develop across western Argyll this evening and extend steadily northwards across northwestern and northern Scotland overnight. Gusts of 60 to 70 mph are likely for a short time across exposed areas before winds ease from the south.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
